London Time"Magdalene" of Passion
Play to Visit America.

OBERAMMERIAU — Francisco Maria Meyer, who achieved such success as the Mary Magdalene of the Passion Play, is to visit America. The young peasant actor made so many warm friends among the visitors of the present season that he has been prevailed upon to pay them a visit, and will start for New York early in the coming month. The Passion Play closed on Wednesday, and it is announced that it was seen by 200,000 people, eight per cent of whom were Americans, fifteen per cent British and five per cent came from other countries, showing the absolute necessity of American support for the undertaking. As soon as the Passion Play will begin a three weeks' holiday. He will visit Palestine in the Spring. The remaining actors, mostly wood carvers, go back to their ordinary vocations. Preparations for the next play will begin next year.

Hammerstein's London House.

LONDON. The London Herald reports that Thomas Beecham, Oscar Hammerstein's rival, pretends they do not take seriously his plan to build a $1,500,000 opera house here. "The handkerchief in London," the truth is that the opera and Mr. Beecham's plans will continue. They know that, with Hammerstein in the field the salaries of singers will rise, and they will be compelled to spend much more money to stage operas which they would be unable to do in their own country.

Straus Tells Gains in Turkey.

LONDON. "The results of the 50th year of the new regime in Turkey are summed up in one word, 'liberty.' Much is the opinion of Oscar Straus, the United States Ambassador at Constantinople, who is in London on his way to America on a two month tour. 'The new regime,' said the Ambassador, 'has freed itself of the system, which was so highly developed under the late Sultan, and the new movement is doing creditable work.'

To Send U. S. Troops to China.

MANILA. Acting under orders lately received from Washington, the military authorities are quietly assembling supplies, clothing and transportation for approximately 500 troops in readiness for embarkation. It is reported that the situation in that country is causing much uneasiness among the American troops, and that the government is considering the possibility of sending a larger force.

Jockey Left $125,000.

LONDON. Tom Lister, a leading English jockey who died this week, left a fortune estimated at $1,125,000. Lister's awards for riding winners were large, but all of this sum was made on the turf. A goodly portion of it came in fact from investments recommended by Leopold the Rothschild, who for several years was Lister's employer.

American Woman Stricken.

ELMOUTH. Mrs. W. O. Dorr of Hollywood, Cal., was injured here from the steamer President Grant for an operation for appendicitis. She and her husband were on their way to Paris. They sailed from New York.

Invents Wireless Lamp.

COPENHAGEN. Vladimir Poulsen, the well known electrical inventor, has invented a method of lighting electric lamps at a distance without the use of wires. He is now working to perfect the invention, which is not yet adapted for general use.

Cavalieri Has Relapse.

PARIS. Lina Cavalieri, who is Mrs. Robert Godeaux in private life, is ill. She has been confined to her room since her relapse from the illness she suffered from in the summer of 1909. She thinks her illness is a relapse after her recent operation.

W. E. Hearst Calls for Home.

LONDON. William Hearst, Hearst's son, is home today on the steamship Mauretania.

Oriental Rug Department

Chandler & Co. announce an unprecedented sale of

A Selection of Oriental Rugs

Purchased by them in connection with the great Oriental Rug Department of

LORD & TAYLOR

New York City

And to be sold by them at

Less Than Half the Regular Retail Prices

One of the largest importers of Oriental Rugs and Carpets was in need of immediate cash. M. Lord & Taylor and Chandler & Co. secured the Rugs, hence this remarkable offer.

Every Rug Carries Chandler & Co.'s Fullest Guarantee

Chandler & Co. have bought and sold many hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of fine Oriental Rugs, and Rugs of remarkable value have passed through their hands. In all their experience they believe they have not been in position to make an offer quite the equal of this.

Here is what Lord & Taylor have to say about these wonderful Rugs: "These are unquestionably the greatest Oriental Rugs ever sold in America, and we do not think this offering has ever been matched by any other Oriental Rug House."

The entire collection, with many other rugs, which will be placed on sale Monday morning, October 3rd, presents a magnificent assemblage of rare weaves in rich, soft colorings and artistic designs, the beautiful effects of which are almost indescribable.

The following are examples of the values in this sale

HYPNOTISM

DIRECT NOMINATION REFORM VITAL SAYS CHARLES S. HAMLIN

Among other great reforms the question of the direct nomination of city, county and State officers stands forth, to my mind, as the most vital importance. It will do away with the friction which nominating conventions generate. It will place every citizen upon an equality and it will give to every voter an opportunity to pass directly upon men as well as measures. — Charles S. Hamlin in speech at Hingham.

VALEY SCORNS SECOND PLACE

James H. Valey, who is running for the Democratic State ticket, scorns the idea of being second in the race.
